

An Applicant's Guide to Completing the Amateur Swimming Association Member Registration Forms

This booklet contains step-by-step notes on how to fill in the registration forms for category 2 (blue) and category 1 and 3 (pink).

If you have any questions, please contact our Membership Team on 01509 618727, or alternatively e-mail us at Renewals@swimming.org

Do's

- Use black ink throughout and write clearly in BLOCK CAPITALS only.
- Use only one letter or number for each box.
- Leave an empty box between words.
- Infill choice circles where indicated (please see example)
- Be sure to sign the form where indicated.
- Make sure you retain the back copy of all forms for your records.

Don'ts

- Don't write over the edges of the box.
- Don't place any stickers or staple any other paper to these forms.
- Don't use correction fluid.
- Don't fold the forms.

Your step by step guide to filling in category 1 & 3 form

Most of the information on the pink form is already explained on the guidelines for the category 2 form, please refer to this for detailed explanation on filling in the names, addresses and the ethnicity parts of the form. The differences are shown and explained below.

Please indicate which membership category.

Please note the list of clubs of which you are a member must be completed in chronological order, i.e. in order of the longest continuous membership. Again the club code list is included in this guide and is available on the www.britishswimming.org website.
